

TLC WINS DEALER COMPETITION

You know how everyone says they never ever win competitions—well TLC has won the Spicer's Dealer 'Big Reward' Competition and has won a holiday for Sandra &

Tom at the "Cheddi Muscat" Hotel in Oman for one week in September. To win the competition, dealers were required to increase their sales of two nominated manufacturers' products each month for 12 consecutive months. We have been working hard to achieve this—and seem to have succeeded! Sandra says "As well as thanking the staff, I would like to thank all our customers who have obviously helped us to surpass our targets because of your loyalty". We wish all the best to Tom and Sandra and hope they have a totally wonderful holiday .

OUR 'IN HOUSE' COMPETITION

Our own TLC "Treasure Hunt competition" seems to have gone down well over the last month or so. Any customer ordering over £50 of goods was entitled to ring in and have a 'lucky dig' at the 'Giant Treasure Map' adorning the wall of our office. Many did, and, to date, customers have won over 40 prizes ranging from soft toys, chocolate bars, tool sets, cold bags, scratchcards, magazine racks, biscuits etc. AND THE COMPETITION IS STILL RUNNING as I write this article. Many customer have appreciated the 'fun' of having a go at finding that elusive treasure. Ring for details.

PLAN AHEAD

It is this time of year where many of our customers 'plan ahead' and put in their orders for diaries, planners etc. We now have a diary order form which shows our diaries starting at 49p each with the most expensive 'Executive' diary at £4.99.

If you are thinking of your 2010 holiday then you need to start thinking about having a Staff Holiday Planner so that everyone has a fair chance at getting the week off that they want. These planners made by Sasco, Mark-it, Collins and 5 Star are shown on pages 325 to 328 of our main catalogue.

Why not 'Plan Ahead' and get in now before stocks run low?

HOLIDAY STORY

Bored during the long flight, a man leaned over to Tom to ask him if he would like to play a game. "I'll ask you a question," the man explained,

"and if you don't know the answer, you pay me £5. Then you ask me a question, and if I don't know the answer, I'll pay you £50." When Tom agreed to play, the man asked, "What's the distance from the Earth to the moon?" Flummoxed, Tom handed him £5. "Ha!" said the man, "It's 238,857 miles. Now, it's your turn."

Tom fell silent for a few moments. Then he asks, "What goes up a hill with three legs and comes down with four?" Puzzled, the man racked his brains for an hour—but to no avail. Finally he took out his wallet and handed over £50. "Okay, what is the answer?" the man asked. Tom said, "I don't know," pulled out a £5 note, handed it to the man and went back to sleep!

CAN YOU BELIEVE IT?

Did you know that, frighteningly, one seventh of your life is spent on a Monday?
